

North Okanagan Beekeepers

Beekeepers Meeting Monday March 18, at 7:00 PM in the Cafeteria at the Okanagan College at 1000 KLO Rd.

Head of the Provincial Apiculture Office Paul van Westendorp will be at the meeting to introduce the new appointed bee inspector for the Shuswap-North Okanagan, Stephanie Taylor. He will also be talking on changes to the Veterinary Prescription Drug laws that have been implemented by the Federal Government. As well as to the state of beekeeping in the province. The next pests and disease that are looming.

Stephanie Taylor who some of us know all ready has spent the last 2 winters working for beekeepers in New Zealand, and has spent her summers in the Okanagan working for a few different beekeepers will share some of her New Zealand beekeeping experience.
